

Graduate Study Program - Business Economics (Management, Finance and Accounting, Marketing, Entrepreneurship, International Business)

By completing the study program the student will have competences in:	Master of Business Economics (graduate study) By completing the graduate study program the student will be able to:
Understanding and applying business knowledge	1	Critically evaluate theories, models and concepts in business economics
	2	Interpret and address contemporary issues in the field of business economics
	3	Evaluate the effects of internal and external factors in the national and international environment
	4	Identify principles, techniques and ways of doing business at national, regional or international levels
Critical thinking	5	Integrate knowledge about business operations (managerial, marketing, logistical, financial, accounting, export, import, etc.)
	6	Make conclusions on the basis of incomplete or limited information using theoretical knowledge and judgment and / or complex instruments, methods and tools
	7	Critically evaluate and creatively solve problems by linking knowledge from particular areas of business economics
	8	Apply advanced statistical, quantitative and qualitative methods and decision-making information tools
Communication and teamwork	9	Use argumentative communication as a team in the field of business economics
	10	Prepare and present reports in written and oral form
Ethical approach to decision-making	11	Identify and analyze ethical challenges in business decision making

Understanding and applying business knowledge - Our students will demonstrate understanding and apply business knowledge while critically evaluating theories, models and concepts, addressing contemporary issues and assessing the business environment.

Critical thinking- Our students will integrate knowledge, apply methods inherent to the business economics, make conclusions, critically evaluate and creatively solve challenges from particular areas of business economics.

Communication and teamwork - Our students will communicate with providing arguments in written and oral form and possess skills to work effectively in a team.

Ethical approach to decision-making - Our students will be able to select ethical approach in decision-making in the particular areas of business economics.

Postgraduate Specialist Programme (Industry MBA) – Energy economics, Finance, Controlling, Marketing management, Public sector management, E-business intelligence, Accounting, Security management in the EU, Doing business with the EU, Business success management