

By completing the study program the student will have competences in :		PSP (Industry MBA) By completing the PSP study program the student will be able to:
Applying business knowledge	1	Apply theories, models, concepts and ideas in the functional areas of finance, management or interdisciplinary field
	2	Interpret and address contemporary issues in the functional areas of finance, management or interdisciplinary field
	3	Integrate the effects of internal and external environment factors in the national and international environment
Critical thinking and problem-solving skills	4	Critically evaluate and creatively solve problems by linking knowledge from particular areas of industry
	5	Integrate knowledge relative to specific industry and key business operations
	6	Implement advanced statistical, quantitative and qualitative methods in problem solving
Communication	7	Use argumentative communication personally or in a team in written and oral form
Business ethics and social responsibility	8	Apply the principles of ethical and social responsibility inherent to a particular profession

Applying business knowledge - Our students will be able to apply business knowledge in the functional areas of finance, management or interdisciplinary field; apply theories, models, concepts and ideas in specific functional area; address contemporary issues and integrate effects of internal and external environment factors.

Critical thinking and problem-solving skills - Our students will integrate knowledge, critically evaluate, and critically solve challenges by implementing different methods related to business economics.

Communication - Our students will use argumentative communication in written and oral form related to business economics issues.

Business ethics and social responsibility - Our students will be able to support ethical and social responsibility principles related to business economics.