WAYS OF TRANSPORTATION

Rijeka as a city doesn't have an airport which is located in the city (like Milan, Roma, Paris, Amsterdam etc.). The nearest airport is located on the island of Krk (often called Airport of Rijeka – shuttle bus drives you to Rijeka) and this is a small one – mostly for low budget airlines. There is also a small airport in Pula (distance 103 km from Rijeka). Besides that, Zagreb has the biggest airport, where there is a possibility to catch a shuttle bus from the airport to Rijeka – distance 185 km. Zagreb is 2:30 hours from Rijeka by bus. If you are heading from Zagreb airport to Rijeka bus station, there are shuttle buses which drive you directly to Rijeka bus station. Those buses are not so expensive and they are much suitable than using train. Regarding shuttle schedule, prices etc., our friendly recommendation is to check online on the section “Useful links”.

From Rijeka bus station to hotel Continental, Neboder it takes approx. 10 minutes by walk and for hotel Bonavia it takes 5 minutes by walk (see Accomodation section for more details). Train transportation is slower, cheaper and sometimes they could be unpredictable. Zagreb Central Station of Zagreb is not located close to Zagreb Airport, so if you use a taxi be prepared. We suppose that there are alternative ways of transport like public transport (bus, tram). If you are not in a hurry, this could be a good solution. Another possibility is the airport of Ljubljana, Slovenia, 124 km from Rijeka, but you might need to catch a bus or train to Rijeka. There are relatively small airports which are dislocated like the Airport of Zadar and Airport of Split. These are for the ones who have a lot of time on their disposal. From Trieste Airport to Rijeka we are not sure of the direct line but from the city of Trieste to Rijeka (Fiume in italian) there is bus transport.
